Announcing the launch of Steven Marshall Memorial Athletic Fund

A fund to provide charitable contributions to local youth athletic programs in memory of Steven Marshall.

Mountain City, TN - On the 4th anniversary of the tragic loss of Steven Marshall, his family and friends are announcing the launch of the Steven Marshall Memorial Athletic Fund (StevenMarshallFund.com).

Steven was a devoted Christian, husband of Danae, and father to two of the county's outstanding athletes in our youth sports programs, Tanner and Sawyer. Steven was an active coach, assistant, statistician, mentor, and friend to many of our county's greatest assets, our children and youth.

Steven Marshall

(June 05, 1980 – November 03, 2017)

Donations are being solicited to help provide monetary assistance in Steven's memory and honor to:

- Johnson County Youth Sports League Programs
- JCMS Athletic Programs
- JCHS Athletic Programs
- School/Community organizations and/or individuals will be able to request monetary assistance from this fund to go towards special sports related projects as needed when funds are available.
- Future goals will be to provide special events for our community and youth in a variety of other programs, such as a potential Motorcycle/Dirt-bike safety class. Details will be forth coming.
